

HARPENDEN MUSICALE SUMMER MUSIC FESTIVAL

Sunday 13th August to Saturday 19th August 2006

This year Musicale celebrates
29 years of music making in Harpenden and beyond.

The Harpenden Musicale Holiday and the Musicale Young Artists' Programme run concurrently with the festival at the Harpenden Public Halls and High Street Methodist Church in a week long course held at St George's School, Harpenden.

Audiences in the festival are therefore a healthy mix of aspiring young musicians and the general public.

Evening Concerts at the Harpenden Public Hall

Lunchtime Concerts at the High Street Methodist Church

Sunday 13 August 7.30pm

Royal Academy of Music Bassoon Ensemble

A totally unique sound combined with real virtuosity. This concert will captivate the audience from start to finish with arrangements of well known classics including the overtures to Mozart's Marriage of Figaro and Glinka's Russlan and Ludmilla. Also music by Debussy, Prokofiev, Gershwin and a potpourri of lighter entertainment.

Monday 14 August 7.30pm

Group Sax

Formed during their first year at the Royal College of Music in 2005, Group Sax is an up and coming saxophone quartet. Playing a variety of music, both classical and jazz.

Wednesday 16 August 7.30pm

Zvonecek Children's Choir Prague Conductor Jarmila Novenkova "Zvonecek - Praha" (Prague Little Bell) was founded in September 1996 at the Prague Music School and has quickly established itself as the leading Czech children's choir. Numerous international singing competition successes and recordings have increased the choir's reputation both at home and abroad. This concert forms part of the choir's second tour to England and will include sacred and secular items together with traditional Czech and Slovak folk-songs.

Friday 18 August 7.30pm

The Musicale Holiday Intermediate Band and Orchestra

Saturday 19 August 10.30 am Morning Concert

The Musicale Young Artists' Symphony Orchestra

Guy and Magnus Johnston are the soloists in Brahms's Concerto for Violin, Cello and Orchestra. The concert opens with Humperdink's Overture - Hansel and Gretel and finishes with Hamilton Harty's tuneful 'Irish Symphony'

3.30pm

The Musicale Young Artists' Wind Orchestra

Impressive music making by a group of very talented players drawn from all over the United Kingdom.

7.30pm

The Musicale Young Artists' Symphony Orchestra

A repeat of the morning concert.

Lunchtime Concerts

1.15 - 2.00pm

Monday 14 August - Thursday 17 August

High Street Methodist Church

With grateful acknowledgement to the Harpenden Music Foundation for the supply of the piano.

These delightful concerts are given by advanced students who are taking part in the Musicale Young Artists' Programme. Most of the players are thinking of making music their career and some are about to enter Music College.

Concerts take place each day in front of an audience which literally walks in off the High Street (what better way to spend a lunch-hour!).

The players are also supported by their friends from the music course. Each programme is made up of two, twenty minute recitals. The result is a fantastically diverse offering of music spread over four days. Not to be missed!

Entrance to the lunchtime concerts is free, but a retiring collection will be made every day in aid of 'Rupert's Fund' in support of providing transport for clients of Kent House Brain Injury Rehabilitation Trust, Aylesbury.
